Close-Reading Questions

Refer to “What’s Killing Bats?” to respond to the questions below. Reread the article to find details that support your answers. Remember to write in complete sentences.

1. What is white-nose syndrome?

   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________

2. Why is white-nose syndrome harmful to bats?

   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________

3. Do you think people should be afraid of bats? Use details from the article and the sidebar “The Truth About Bats” as support.

   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________